to town.

Help!

SCHOOL NOTES.

By W. H. JOHNSON, Su perintendent

By order of the Board of Education and the Board of Health all school children, and teachers, are required to be vaccinated, unless the physicisn is satisfied with a former vaccination, or that the individual has had small pox. This is a wise precautionary measure against an epidemic.

Beulah Dowdy visited Jessie Williams at Caruthersville Friday and Sunday.

Miss Hill and Lettie Buck were in Caruthersville a few hours Thursday evening.

L L. Lefler, President of the Board of Education was at school for a short while Tuesday. Mr. Rose, teacher in room seven had business in Caruthersville Friday. Mrs. Rose taught for Mr. Rose during his absence. came to see us Friday afternoon.

Visit school.

Better to Play Fair.

"De man dat's afraid to take his share of de risk," said Uncle Eben, "takes bigger chances dan de man dat plays fair. I learned dat watchin' what happened to a feller dat got his-

Lest You Forget

¶Let us remind you again that we keep in stock a full line of

BUTTERICK

PATTERNS

Get the new ones every month. Also the Fashion Sheets

and Quarterlies. LOOK THEM

OVER BEFORE ORDERING

Buckley's

Stanley News

Good morning to all Hayti Herald readers.

Farming and visiting seem to be the most important news of this neighborhood at pre sent.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Flowers made a trip to Hayti Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Casey made a trip to Portageville Monday. Mrs. Lee Crockett had "lots" of company Sunday, the writer does not know just who all were Miss Viola Patterson went to Hayti Saturday and accompanied her mother, Mrs. Anna Patterson, from there to Carleton where they spent Saturday night and Sunday with relatives ..

Prayermeeting was held at Mrs. Casey's Saturday night and at Mrs. Aeson's Sunday night.

Tomie and Loyd Weaks, who moved recently to Marston, were Bonnie Hart, class, of 1916, seen in this neighborhood Mon

The offer of a set of kitchenware FREE to every purchaser of a MA JESTIC during demonstration week is genuine. It is an out-and-out gift to every purchaser of a MAJESTIC range and the price of this range with a reputation remains the same. See this demonstration during the week se'f ketched cheatin' in a crap game." | commencing March 18th, at our store

Hoarding of Foods.

buying of food stuff has been leave us. greatly agitated, and there possibly are some who want to look out for themselves regardless of the welfare of his fellowman, the Food Administration is going about and steadily bringing those kind of people to their senses.

Only a few days ago, so relates the Interstate Grocer, were two farmers in Alabama were arrested for the storing of vast quantities of sugar and syrups at their homes. They were Chilton and Bonny Napier of Houston county. The sheriff making the arrest siezes 25 sacks of flour, 17 barrels and 74 gallons of syrup at the farm of Clifton Napier and ten sacks of flour stored by Bonny Napier, and these were taken to the nearby town and held for condemnation proceedings.

There is a heavy penalty for the hoarding of food stuffs, and | Cards were rec'd last week by few in this county who may have ton Andrews of Gideen, announca surplus on hand, we do not be. ing the birth of a baby girl on per cent of our people are patri. here. otic to the core.

Benton, a town of 320 inhabitants in Scott County, has issued collection. the challange to any town of 300 population in the United States day school Sunday was 40. We thrift stamps, says the Globe tion. Democrat. Through the efforts of Rev. Joseph P. Fitzkam of St. Denis Parish, the town has sub scribed for $37,000 worth of war savings and thrift stamps. This makes a total of $116 per peron. -Cape Republican.

Columbia double disc records, best and longest lived, on sale at Turnbaugh's Jewelry Store, Caruthersville.

Bob Brooks and little son were in Greenway, Ark., the latter part of last week, returning home Monday afternoon, being accompanied by his sister, Mrs. C. R. Davis, of Sikeston, who had been visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. G. M. Brooks. Bob had been visisting his parents a few days prior to their departure to Wilbur, Ark., where Reverend Brooks takes a circuit.

Farmers, bring your corn exchange.

A. M. Neeley of Indianapolis, Ind., was here several days the leaves a host of friends to mourn first of the week. her departure.

Steele News.

SUNBEAM.

We are having some nice spring ike weather, everyone gardening and planting potatoes.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Steele were John Beeding, sold his farm,

Mrs. J. S. German was taken to Memphis, Tuesday morning, where she will under go an operation. We hope her speedy recovery.

No wonder Albert Kelley is all in smiles here of late, he has a new baby girl at his home, and his brother, Fred is home on a 12 day furlough.

John German, Russ Rhineheart and Mervin wells of Fort Sill, Okla., who has been in training camps since last gust are home on a furlough.

Memphis on busine

Postmaster Br ick and family, left Monday 10. Bee bee, Ark., where they intend to make until an examation. We regret ald, I am. While the subject of the heavy to see Mr. and Mrs. Broderick

> Carl Sheiley, who has been in training camp at Fort Sill, Okla., since August returned home last Tuesday for a few days, before he would leave for France. But his visit was a very sad one indeed, as his mother, "Mrs. J. W. Yarbro" died Monday. Interment was made Tuesday at Mt. Zion Cemetery.

Mrs. Rosa Carsey, died Saturday after an illness of pneumonia. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boone McAurthur, She leaves her husband and three small children, also father, mother and friends to mourn her death. Interment was made at Mt. Zion Cemetery Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Stephens was in Caruthersville Tuesday to see Dr. Pinion.

while there might be possibly a friends, from Mr. and Mrs. Clinlieve there are many, and we are the 17th of Feb. Mr. and Mrs. sure we can say that at least 90 Andrew's has a host of friends

> We have on roll at the Methodist Sunday school 83, attendance Sunday was 68 with $3.46

Attendance at the Baptist Sunto beat its record in the sale of were unable to learn their collec-

Miss Alma Gilland and Laura Waters of Cooter spent Tuesday with Miss Agness Lindsey.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Woodward left Monday for Bee bee, Ark., where they will make their future home. We regret to see them leave.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cain of Caruthersville spent Sunday here with his mother, Mrs. M. M. Cain.

Miss Effic Beeding, who is teaching school at Tyler, spent Sunday here with homefolks.

Again the death angel has visited our little town and taken from our midst, Mrs. Sarah Yarbro, wife of our merchant, J. W. Yarbro. She was sick only one week of pneumonia. Funeral services were held Tuesday at Mt. Zion Cemetery by Bro. Duneither can. The pall bearers were solsnapped or shucked to Hayti Milling dier boys, Fred Kelley, John German, Mervin Wells and Russ Rhineheart. Besides her husband and several children, she

Letter from Carl Sigler.

San Antonio, Tex., March 1, 1918.

Friend Otis:

which is one mile north of this and I want the Herald to follow erty in this city.

might say that I hope you will patriotic though it best to delay not have to go to war, as it is no the construction until after the place for a married man, but on war; another reason being the the contrary is just the thing for scarcity of labor and the prevaila single man like me.

and go to town every night. We best that this county should also make a hike Monday morning hold a good roads election and if with full equipment on our backs, possibly vote bonds on the heels Miss Grace Murp , of Hayti the equipment weighing about of the action of our sister counis the guest of Rub Lipscomb. seventy-five pounds. We have all ties, and withhold the construc-Vernon Wells spe Junday in clothes and equipment and are tion until after the war, for one ready to make the trip across reason that labor will possibly the pond.

at Camp John Wise, but won't be over the country, making jobs at their future home. Frank here long. With kindest regards a premium, and we are inclined Weaver will serve as postmaster for all my friends and the Her- to think his remarks sound facts.

CARL B. SIGLER, Camp John Wise, 37 Balloon Co., San Antonio, Tex.

Our watch repair department steadily grows, there is a reason; his death occuring a visit to his let us do your work in that line, aged mother, Mrs. T. G. Gause. Turnbaugh's Jewelry Store, Ca. Mr. Gause will be remembered 1 uthersville.

Misses Mayme Pickens and Audrey Berry spent Saturday and has lived in this county for and Sunday with homefolks at several years, and spent much Cape Girardeau.

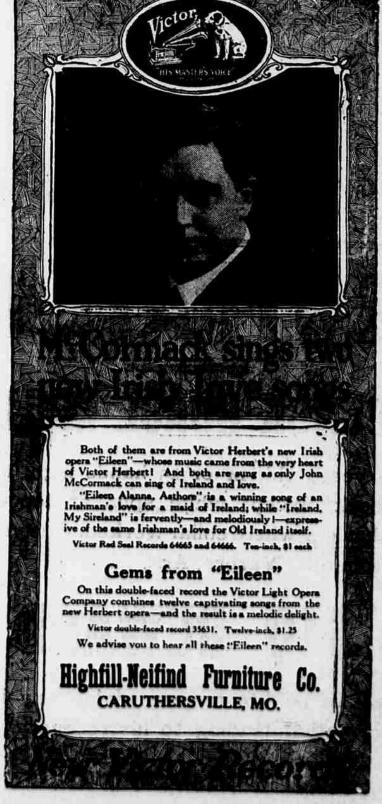

A Business Man's Views.

Hon. Matt J. Conran of New Madrid was down Tuesday shaking hands with friends and also I was surprised to receive one looking after business matters. of the Heralds, and it made me Mr. Conran is one of this counshoppers, in Blytheville Tuesday. feel at home to read it. We are ty's biggest land holders, also getting ready to go to France, being heavily interested in prop-place and has moved to his family me through my fighting, you In conversation with Mr. Conknow it will make me feel much ran regarding the good roads better to read of home and bond issue in his county he in friends. We will leave for France formed us that they had voted about the 10th of March, and in and sold the bonds for the purleaving I would like for you to pose of constructing hard roads, convey to my friends a kind and but on account of the United States being in the toils of war, In writing of our army life I and their county of course being ing high prices of materials.

We are all having a good time Mr. Conran said he thought it be very cheap on account of the I am going to a balloon school numbers of warring men thrown > E. B. Brittin conveys to us the information of the death of W. A. Gause on Friday morning of last week near Durhamville, Tenn., the town in which he was born. as being one of the citizens of our nearby town, Netherlands, of his time in this city.

WE PAY THE FREIGHT TO YOUR TOWN